IDENTITY THEFT DEFINED

"Every person who willfully obtains personal identifying information of another person and uses that information for any unlawful purpose, including to obtain, or attempt to obtain, credit, goods, services, or medical information in the name of the other person without the consent of that person..."

"Personal identifying information" includes the following: "The name, address, telephone number, driver's license number, social security number, place of employment, employee identification number, mother's maiden name, demand deposit account number, savings account number, or credit card number, of an individual person." (Penal Code Section 530.5(a) and (b).

FRAUD AND IDENTITY THEFT PREVENTION TIPS:

- Do not routinely carry your social security card with you.
- Do not give your personal identifying information to anyone that you do not know or did not solicit their services.
- Do not leave anything containing your personal identifying information in your car or anyplace where someone could take it.
- Do not respond to any request that you send money or information to someone because you "won" a prize or a lottery.
- Ask telemarketers where you can obtain printed information about their product if you are interested; otherwise, hang up.
- Sign the back of your credit cards or write, "Demand to see proper ID" so that clerks pay attention to your credit card use.
- Obtain a credit report annually: www.annualcreditreport.com or (877) 322-8228.
- Do not leave any mail clipped to a mailbox or in an unsecured location. Only Use a secure/locking mailbox.
- Do not throw away unopened mail especially if it comes from a financial or credit institution – get a shredder.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU ARE A VICTIM OF IDENTITY THEFT:

1. Take Care of Your Identity/Credit Issues

- Use the step-by-step recovery plan at www.identitytheft.gov/Steps.
- Accumulate all of the paperwork showing that you have been a victim.
- Keep a logbook of the names, addresses, and phone numbers of contacts you have made.
- Contact banks for your existing accounts with banks, credit card issuers, etc., and secure them as needed.
- Contact all creditors where fraud has occurred informing them that you are a victim of identity theft. Use the sample letter (next page) and/or follow their protocol to report the fraud.

2. Crime Reporting

- Contact your local police agency to initiate a preliminary report as a victim of identity theft.
- Obtain a copy of the police report pursuant to Penal Code Section 530.6.
- Contact the Department of Justice if you wish to be included in their database of identity theft victims pursuant to Penal Code Section 530.7 at www.ic3.gov and www.ftc.gov.
- Notify your local DMV office to put an alert on your license or to report the use of your license number.
- Get a copy of any credit application or bank account that was fraudulently filed or opened in your name by the unauthorized person, free of charge, pursuant to Penal Code Section 530.8.
- Ask the three credit bureaus for the name, address, and phone number of companies granting credit in your name.

The following is a sample letter to creditors with fraudulent accounts:

(Date)

Dear ____:

On (date) I received your letter demanding payment of ($...). I did not open this account and incur this unpaid balance. An imposter wrongfully used my identity to obtain the credit/service. Your company extended credit and/or gave goods or services to an imposter. Your company, therefore, is a victim and should file a police report in the appropriate jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified that on (date), I filed a crime report for identity theft with the Oxnard Police Department, in Oxnard, California, case no. _____. This can be verified by contacting the Oxnard Police Department at (805) 385-7600.

Closing,

(You name, address, and phone number)
